NAVAL DISCIPLINE.

Nine Jolly tars Don't Like to Cut Ice in Cold Weather—They are Drunned Off League Island in Consequence.

Yesterday morning nine of Uncle Sam's mariners came to grief in a curious way. The men in question, who belonged to the company of the ship St. Louis, had been ordered to cut ice for storage in the ice-house from which the officers and men on duty at League Island are supplied in summer. The weather was rather cold, and the work was done with a great deal of haste. The nine tars kept at it for a time, but finally concluded to succumb to the weather and adjourn to their comfortable quarters on board the St. Louis. They did without orders or leave, and made their complaint to the officer of the deck. This officer referred the matter to the executive officer of the station, who at once had the nine men ranged in a row on deck, and placed in double irons, for refusing to do duty. They were then sent ashore, but in a short time their iron was removed by order of the commodore of the station, and the sensitive seamen were paid up in full and mustered out of the naval service. They were marched off the island under guard, and set at liberty at the rates, which they made their way to the city on foot. It is more than probable that they are now repenting the weakness for warmth which induced them to abandon their work on the ice.

HELPLESSLY DRUNK.—Yesterday afternoon, two boys, aged respectively ten and twelve years, were found hopelessly drunk on the ice in the Schuylling. They were taken to the station-house, where they gave information to the effect that Rosanna McGinnis, residing at Twenty-fifth and Hamilton streets; John Hughes, Twenty-fifth and Spruce streets; and William Workman, Pennsylvania avenue and Spring Garden streets, had sold them liquor. Warrants were at once issued for the arrest of the parties named, and they were soon after taken into custody. They then had a hearing before Alderman Alexander, and were held in $1000 bail each to answer.

FAIRMOUNT PARK RIDERS.—Mr. A. Reimer yesterday received the contract for furnishing the carriages necessary for Fairmount Park for the next five years. The price for a ride through the park, including George's Hill and Belmont Mansion, will be fifty cents for the round trip. In addition to the accommodations which he assumes, Mr. Reimer is directed to have a number of pony phaetons constructed in order to supply the demand made for that class of vehicles. He is also to have on hand a number of other carriages for the purpose of driving children and others to the playground in the West Park. The charge for this trip will be fifteen cents.

MYSTERIOUS.—At an early hour yesterday morning a woman, crossing Market Street Bridge, picked up a nubia trimmed with beads and a piece of a shawl lying alongside the rail. To the latter garment there was attached the following note, written in a wretchedly bad hand: "If any one finds this will find me in the deep—my troubles is more than I can bear—my name is Sarah Twain. I did live 150 Wilmer at Philadelphia." The authorities are investigating the matter.

THE BEDFORD STREET MISSION.—The temporary lodging house connected with the Bedford Street Mission is doing a good work. From children to twenty women and children receive free lodgings every night. Contributions of bread and old clothing are much needed.

CARVALTY.—A daughter of Mrs. Schalter, No. 430 Main street, Tuesday night, fell down stairs yesterday and fractured an arm.

THE FRENCH BAZAAR.

The Close of the Fair for the Benefit of the French Wounded and Suffering—Some of the Lucky Persons who Drew Prizes.

The grand bazaar in aid of the sufferers by war in France, which was in successful operation at Concert Hall, from the 14th to the 24th of December, was removed to No. 1117 Chesnut street on Monday of this week, other engagements at Concert Hall rendering the change necessary. Since the removal a large amount has been realized, and last evening there was a crowded audience in attendance to witness the closing exercises, which were interspersed with excellent vocal and instrumental music. The drawings were completed last evening, except in the case of a few valuable articles, to which subscriptions will yet be received, the drawings for which will not take place until the list of subscribers is full. At 11 o'clock this morning the remaining articles were put up for disposal to the highest bidder at auction, and a large number of persons was in attendance on the lookout for bargains. The following is a list of the persons who drew the most valuable articles for which the drawings have already taken place:—

Master Lambert, No. 342 South Fifteenth street, drew a beautiful French clock worth $100, a gold watch worth $75, and a triple-plated ice pitcher, waiter, and two goblets. Mr. E. Borda, No. 2009 Spruce street, drew a gold watch and chain worth $450. Mr. J. S. Daniels, No. 117 North Seventh street, drew a gold watch worth $100. Mr. P. E. Carroll, No. 14 South Sixth street, drew a gold watch worth $100. Miss Bousler, No. 1240 North Broad street, drew a gold watch worth $80. Mrs. S. W. De Coursey, No. 1417 Spruce street, drew a silver tea set worth $100. Mr. L. Latite drew a sofa worth $100. Mr. Gottlieb Vollmer, No. 1108 Chesnut street, drew a French gilt clock worth $75. Mr. B. W. Fletcher, No. 308 Market street, drew a parlor cabinet worth $75. Mr. J. E. Carroll, No. 1827 Spruce street, drew a do. worth $50. There were a half-dozen or more articles worth about $50 each drawn, and about seventy-five articles of about $25 or $30 in value each. A very large sum has been realized from the fair, but it is impossible to give the amount until the books are balanced.

French Military Strength.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Tours estimates the entire number of French troops at 750,000. Bourbaki's command is charged especially with the duty of re-entraining Paris, and has already on hand a vast amount of live stock and provisions for the purpose. At the proper moment this army will make a desperate effort to join Chanzy's forces, and reunite the Army of the Loire, which will then, with great energy, push on for Paris.

General Prim's Resignation.

General Prim's resignation has been accepted by the Government. He is now charged to mediating politicians, who persuaded Gambetta to interfere with his military operations.

Pucky France.

Earl Granville has received an official despatch from the French Government at Bordeaux, in which France declares her determination not to send a delegate to the peace conference to be held in London, unless the British Government shall first recognize the Republic. A despatch of similar tone has sent each of the other powers.

Prim to Resign.

Advices from Madrid state that Prim announced his determination to resign in person to King Amadeus, and plead a desire to retire to private life.

Paris Concentrating.

Despatches from Versailles state that the general evacuation of departments east of Paris which has been thought by the Germans still continues. It is thought this is being done in order to concentrate the Prussian strength in and around Versailles.

FROM THE WEST.

Railway Bridge Burned.

The Miami Reservation.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.—A despatch from Fort Leavenworth says that at the request of General Pope, the Secretary of War has postponed the removal of the settlers from the Miami Indian Reservation in Kansas till more favorable weather, but troops have been ordered there to protect the Indians against the depredations of the whites.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The San Domingo Question.

Despatch to the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—A commercial house in New York writes to a prominent Senator:— "We are advised by our agents, as well as by our Dominican correspondents, that everything is peaceful and quiet, and that the entire community with whom they are brought in contact are unanimously in favor of and anxiously awaiting annexation. The trade between that island and New York is continually, although as yet in a small way, increasing, and by the last trip of the Tybee there were received, for the first time, eighteen hundred sermons of tobacco from Samana."

Mustered Out of Service.

By direction of the President, on the recommendation of the board convened under section 11 of the act approved July 15, 1870. Roe, 2d Cavalry; Second Lieutenant Thomas G. Tracy, 9th Infantry; First Lieutenant William P. Bainbridge, 6d Cavalry.

N. Y. MONEY MARKET OF YESTERDAY.

From the N. Y. Herald.

Another "squeeze" in money. "The bears," or rather the "bulls"—for the recent operators for a decline, with few exceptions, are now buying both to cover their outstanding contracts and to be long of stocks against the great relaxation in the money market nationally during the past week. This will tend to keep the money market stringent at this time other than that they may force stocks out of weak hands as well as check the outside demand for the shares which they themselves are desirous of possessing. The clearing of mercantile and bank accounts, the withdrawal of money necessary to meet the payment of dividends and similar influences co-operating to render money active are operative in the looking up of funds by the citizens, the means to do which have been proffered by lowering the rate of interest on bank loans. This will speedily balance at the Gold Bank today to about 100-110. Some banks, however, are not so liberal in their terms as the Gold Bank.
